

Hon. P.C. Pant, J.

Heard learned counsel for the petitioner.

By means of this Contempt Petition, the petitioner has complained disobedience of order dated 04.06.2004 passed by Division Bench of this Court in Writ Petition No. 131 (S/B) of 2004.

By said order, the parties have been directed to maintain status quo. From the perusal of the petition and the affidavit filed therewith, it appears that the order dated 04.06.2004 was passed in respect of the controversy, whether, the petitioner has to be sent back to his parent department, or not? However, it does not say anything as to the transfer from one place to another in the department, where the petitioner is working.

If the petitioner feels aggrieved, the impugned transfer order dated 18.03.2006, gives him a fresh cause of action. As such, this Contempt Petition is not maintainable and the same is accordingly dismissed in limine.
